

Voltas wins top honours at MEP Middle East Awards...3rd time in a row !

At the 2012 MEP Middle East Awards held in Dubai on November 28th, Voltas yet again walked off with two of the most coveted awards: namely

- 'MEP Contractor of the Year' for the 3rd year running
- 'Overall GCC Project of the Year' for Abu Dhabi's Yas Waterworld, shared with the consultancy firm WS Atkins'.

It will be recalled that Voltas won this honour in 2011 for Dubai's Etihad Towers; as well as in 2010 for Abu Dhabi's Ferrari World.

In their comments, the panel of judges said Voltas had a 'hugely successful year working on iconic projects,' while other judges lauded its 'establishment of a strong credible business in Qatar since the downturn in the UAE.'
