

Mr. Sanjay Johri is now Voltas Managing Director

Mr. Sanjay Johri has taken over as Managing Director of Voltas Limited on 23rd April 2010.

Mr. Johri has worked with Voltas since 2004, initially in the corporate area, and thereafter as COO of the Unitary Products Business Group, the Materials Handling Division, and the Mining & Construction Equipment Division. He was promoted to the position of President in October 2008, with additional responsibility for the international Operations Business Group.

One of his most significant contributions at Voltas has been to greatly improve performance and profitability of the Unitary Products business, by implementing a 'lean, productive and flexible' business model. With his keen marketing expertise and customer insight, he has helped grow the Voltas AC brand to a leadership position and sustain it in a highly competitive market.

Prior to joining Voltas, Mr. Johri had been with the Tata Administrative Service since June 1975, and subsequently worked with Indian Hotels Co. Ltd., Tata Press Ltd., and RDI Print and Publishing Ltd.
