

Mumbai Police Commissioner inaugurates play school for the children of police constables

24th March 2017, Mumbai: The Commissioner of Police, Mumbai, Mr. Dattatray Padsalgikar, today inaugurated the newly refurbished Balwadi (play school) at Tardeo for the children of police constables. The refurbishment was carried out by Voltas Limited, a Tata Group company, as a part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. The Balwadi is designed to provide a clean, safe and happy environment for the kids to learn and grow, while their parents are at work. With this inauguration, Voltas has now completely refurbished 8 such Balwadis in a span of only three months. What started as a journey in the start of the year has culminated into an honorable association for Voltas, as it engages even more with the police.

Senior police officials along with the leaders and managers of Voltas attended the inauguration ceremony. Commenting at the inauguration Mr. Dattatray Padsalgikar, Commissioner of Police, said, “The Mumbai Police tackles enormous challenges every day. In such high-pressure jobs, it becomes essential that the force remains highly motivated. It’s heartening to see that Voltas has taken this step of refurbishing the police Balwadis in the city to help the families of our policemen and women while they are on duty. I am happy to see the efforts bearing fruit. I thank the Voltas management for partnering with the Mumbai Police in this cause”.

Mr. Sanjay Johri, Managing Director & CEO of Voltas Limited, said, “The foundation of any civilized society is the law and order machinery. We are really fortunate that the Mumbai Police is one of the best forces in the country. They work tirelessly to protect us, and we wanted to show our appreciation by doing something in return for their families. So we decided to refurbish all the Balwadis in Mumbai, starting with the Worli Balwadi and concluding with this Tardeo Balwadi today, where the children of our police constables can learn and grow”.

About Voltas Limited: Voltas is a premier air conditioning and engineering solutions provider. Founded in India in 1954, Voltas offers smart engineering solutions for a wide spectrum of industries in areas such as heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC), refrigeration, electro-mechanical projects, textile machinery, mining and construction equipment, water management & treatment, building management systems, and indoor air quality. Voltas Ltd. is one of the top 10 companies within the Tata Group.